ACT ONE

BEAT A: PUSH IN on Alice's bedroom, ALICE asleep in her BED. She stirs as her eyes open. "Merry morning, Dinah." But there's no morning meow to greet her. "Dinah? Cookie?" Alice looks around the empty room when she hears a noise outside. She looks out the window and gasps in delight at what she sees. She heads downstairs, grabbing her EARMUFFINS and sneakers along the way.

Alice's POV: she swings the front door open to reveal the outside of the BAKERY covered in a thick blanket of snow. Alice can't contain her excitement: "It's a SNOW DAY in Wonderland!!"

BEAT B: Alice notices kitty foot prints in the snow. She follows them to the back of the BAKERY where COOKIE's teaching DINAH how to make a SNOWBALL. Cookie sees Alice and tosses one over, inviting her to come play. But Alice has to find Rosa - the two of them have been waiting wonderweeks for a snow day!

BEAT C: Alice rushes back inside to get on her snow gear when ROSA slides in on a CARD GUARD who is happily curled up in the shape of a TOBBOGAN. "I'm already here!" She thanks the Card for the lift as he slides away. The girls excitedly hold hands, jumping up and down: "It's time! It's time!"

Cookie and Dinah are curious. Time for what? Rosa and Alice explain they've been working on a snow day recipe together. Rosa takes out a DRAWING she made that acts as the recipe card: "Presenting... CUPPA COZIES!" We see a picture of a fantastical (and safe for all creatures) warm drink that's topped with yummy, SHIMMERING FOAM ART.

Cookie has got to see this drink in action, so the girls do a demo. Rosa pulls out her ART SUPPLIES as Alice fills a teacup with her toasty beverage. Using a PIPETTE, STENCIL, and SHIMMERY POWDER Rosa creates a design of Dinah's face on top of the FOAM.

BEAT D: Dinah laps up her Cuppa Cozy, purring in approval, when FERGIE and HATTIE enter carrying TEACUP SLEDS. "It's time! It's time!" Everyone's curious: Time for what? Hattie explains it's time for his favorite snow day activity: TEACUP SLEDDING at TULGEY PEAK! The boys describe the thrill of rushing downhill when they notice Dinah's Cuppa Cozy. Hattie asks Rosa how she managed to get Dinah's twinkling eyes just right. She says that the foam has to be at a WARM TEMPERATURE to create her designs.

Alice thinks the Cuppa Cozies would go great with a day of teacup sledding and everyone agrees. Cookie decides to stay behind, she needs some time to polish her skis before hitting the slopes. So, the kids pack up their supplies and head to TULGEY PEAK in the TEA PARTY TO-GO CART.

ACT TWO

BEAT A: The Cart pulls up near the top of Tulgey Peak, and Alice Fergie, Hattie, Rosa and Dinah step outside. The kids take in the silence of the freshly fallen snow. Dinah meows - as it echoes through the quiet, we can see her breath due to the cold.

As the kids get their teacup sleds out of the Cart, Alice wonders which sledding course they should hit up. Hattie points out his favorite one: The Twisted Teacup Trail! The corkscrew turns and hilly runs will knock your hats off!

The gang treks to the top of the course. "Who's going first?" asks Fergie. Dinah prances over to a free sled, but before she can jump in, the EMPTY SLED starts cascading down the hill! Dinah is shocked and the gang perplexed until... CHESHIRE CAT (wearing his MITTENS) materializes, enjoying the ride. He's come to join in on the snow day fun too!

Hattie whistles, calling over BREAD AND BUTTERFLIES who grease up his sled. "Last one down the trail's a Hatter's uncle!" He hops in and zips down the course, the others following suit.

BEAT B: IN a SERIES OF SHOTS, Alice and the gang have teacup sledding fun:

- Rosa and Alice giggle as they sled around each other, spinning like whirligigs as they descend.
- Fergie SPINS IN FRAME as he goes through a corkscrew turn.
- Hattie zooms past everyone, leaving a trail of butter behind.

- Cheshire rides a bumpy path that makes Cheshire's head bounce in the air, his voice go up and down as he laughs: "WoOhOoHoOo!" Dinah pops up and covers her eyes with her paws.

BEAT C: After a few rounds down the trail, everyone's chilly. It's so cold, Alice points out that ice has formed on top of Hattie's hat. CHAMOMILE pops out and skates on it, doing an Olympic-worthy spin. They're all ready for a warm up and Rosa and Alice know just the treat: "Cuppa Cozies, comin' up!"

The girls head to the TEA PARTY TO-GO CART to make the drinks. However, as Rosa opens her THERMOS of foam, she makes a startling discovery: It's so cold that the foam has FROZEN!

BEAT D: The Cuppa Cozies aren't complete without Rosa's foam art, so everyone brainstorms ways to warm it up. Hattie says when he's cold he puts on his coziest sweater made by March Hare. Cam pops out from Hattie's hat and hands a tiny sweater to Alice. Hopeful, she puts it on the thermos. But when they open the lid, Alice frowns: the foam is still frozen.

BEAT E: Cheshire says it's too bad there are no campfireflies around to warm it up, which gives Alice an idea. Using her ROLLING PIN WHISTLE, she calls over some CAMPFIREFLIES, who wear TINY SCARVES. They try to warm up the foam, but they shiver cutely - they're cold themselves and are only able to toast up edges.

BEAT F: Alice considers their options. They could go back down the mountain in the Cart to get some warm foam from the Bakery. Fergie looks down the pathway, then at his watch. He thinks driving on the twisty road would take a long time.

With the help of a GLASSES BIRD, Rosa scans the area. In the distance, she sees the Bakery down below. What's more, there's a clear path directly to it. She realizes sliding down in a teacup sled would be a straight shot! Hattie's on it - he's got just the thing to get them down AND back with the warm foam! He greases up a TWO-SEATER TOBOGGAN TEACUP SLED. "This sweet ride will boomerang you right back up the mountain!" Alice and Rosa hop in as Hattie, Fergie, Cheshire and Dinah line up, working together to give the girls a hefty push down Tulgey Peak.

Alice and Rosa zip down the mountain, HORN DUCKS honking from the sidelines. The girls admit: doing a foam run is pretty fun!

BEAT G: At the Bakery, Alice and Rosa swoosh down the slide. Cookie's busy polishing her SKIS and without noticing, the girls breeze past her, grab a thermos of warm foam, and exit out the front door, still on the sled, undetected. Cookie: "Huh. Sure is breezy today."

Once outside, Rosa calls to Alice: "What did Hattie mean about the boomerang part?" Just then, their sled's momentum whips them back up the mountain! Whooooa!

BEAT H: Alice and Rosa's sled triumphantly returns to the top of Tulgey Peak, doing a cool, final spin in front of their pals. The girls hop out, holding up the thermos of foam like a trophy as the rest of the gang cheer.

Rosa and Alice get to work on their Cuppa Cozies in the Cart. Alice mixes the ingredients as Rosa pulls out her art supplies, eager to get to work. But when Rosa unscrews the lid of thermos, she blanches. This batch of foam has frozen, too!

Alice thinks it must have frozen on the way back up the mountain. Hattie agrees, it's the coldest day they've had in Wonderyears! Rosa's bummed. Her and Alice's snow day recipe - and her foam art - have fallen flat.

ACT THREE

BEAT A: Alice reassures Rosa there's still fun to be had: a few more teacup sled runs, some playing in the snow. Fergie agrees - afterwards, they can make the Cuppa Cozies at the Bakery. Rosa knows her friends' hearts are in the right place, but she can't seem to shake her disappointment.

Cheshire asks Rosa for help constructing a SNOW KITTY. He leads her to a featureless pile of snow. He FADES to a GRIN on it, saying he knows Rosa can give it the artistic flair it needs.

Rosa's happy to help - if she can't make Cuppa Cozies, at least she can do some snow art. Her mood lifts as she molds and chisels away at the snow. After adding some shimmering powder, she reveals a snow kitty that looks just like Dinah!

Alice admires Rosa's creation, then gasps! The snow reminds her of the frozen foam. She wonders if Rosa can use it to make a different kind of tasty art for their Cuppa Cozies. Rosa recognizes the similarity of the two mediums and thinks she can!

BEAT B: The gang, including Rosa, breaks into the RECURRING "THE BAKING SONG" as Rosa delves into her art. She sculpts and chisels the frozen foam, adding shimmering pops of color while the friends line up mugs, pour in the beverage and also pull funny faces, urging Rosa to sculpt them!

BEAT C: As the SONG ENDS, Rosa reveals adorable MINI FROZEN FOAM SCULPTURES of each friend. The gang drops their sculptures into their mugs. They cheers and taste the new concoction. It's different, but to their surprise, is equally as delicious!

Rosa's thrilled! The frozen foam wasn't the end of her and Alice's snow day recipe. Finding a way to use it was a new beginning! She realizes that sometimes the best inventions can come from working with what you've got. Alice agrees, the best ideas often form when you need them the most.

And as the kids happily sip on their Cuppa Cozies, Cheshire and Dinah teacup sledding around them, we... FADE OUT.
